

Leung Chun-ying

Vice Chairman of the National Committee of the CPPCC

Honorary President of BRI International Think Tank of CASS

President of Belt and Road Hong Kong Center

Leung Chun-ying, the incumbent Vice Chairman of the National Committee of the CPPCC, Honorary President of BRI International Think Tank of CASS and President of Belt and Road Hong Kong Center.

Leung earned a scholarship to study at King's College, where he was a classmate of future democratic activist Lau San-ching. After graduation, he attended Hong Kong Polytechnic. In 1974, Leung undertook further studies in valuation and estate management at the Bristol Polytechnic and graduated in 1977 first in his class. Leung returned to Hong Kong after becoming a chartered surveyor and joined the real estate company Jones Lang Wootton, where he worked for five years. By the age of 30, he was made vice-chairman of the JLW branch in Hong Kong. In 1993, Leung set up his own surveying company C. Y. Leung & Co., in Hong Kong, which then quickly set up many offices in Shanghai and Shenzhen.

In 1985, Leung joined the Hong Kong Basic Law Consultative Committee (HKBLCC). In 1988, Leung, was made the Secretary-General of the committee. In 1993-1995, he worked as Hong Kong Affairs Consultant of Hong Kong Branch of Xinhua News Agency. From 1995 to 1996, Leung was the president of the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors. He is a former chairman of the Hong Kong branch of Royal

Institution of Chartered Surveyors. After holding the post, Leung became an honorary advisor for the local governments of Shenzhen, Tianjian and Shanghai on land reform. He has also taken up the post of international economic advisor for Hebei. In 1999, he was appointed the convenor of the Executive Council of Hong Kong, a position he held until 2011. In 2012, he was elected as the fourth Chief Executive of Hong Kong. In December 2016, Leung announced he would not seek a second term. In 2017 and 2018, he was elected the Vice Chairman of the 12th and 13th CPPCC respectively.